Stallman against ZFS on Linux

- Ubuntu 16.06 LTS plans to have ZFS built in
- Stallman claims combining the CDDLv1-licensed ZFS with Linux is impossible due to GPL-incompatibility
- Eben Moglen, co-author of GPLv3 argued that the merger would maintain the spirit of the licenses which is what matters in court

Encryption is scary to politicans

- U.S. Attorney, Barbara Mcquade, argued at the University of Michigan that, "[she thinks] it would be reasonable to ban the import of open-source encryption software"
- Twitter replied in a shocked manner

Emacs on Chrome

- Emacs and Elisp can run natively on Chrome
- ... I don't see why it's necessary, but okay

Android N Developer Preview

- Android N Developer Preview 2 out as of April 13th
- Lots of new features
